

	Questions	Answers
1	Annexure A: Statement of work. What is it that we are expected to put under this annexure?	Annexure A relates to the Scope of Work in the bid document, bidders do not have to attach or put anything under this annexure. It is just what the service provider will be expected to do when appointed in the panel.
2	Annexure J: Bidder's company profile. What is it that we are expected to put under this annexure?	Bidders are expected to attach a company profile which details who they are, what they do, their directors, owners, clients and so forth. Umalusi just want to know who their potential service providers are.
3	I was on medical leave without access to my emails. This tender was advertised in the time I was out of the office and so was the briefing date. Is there any chance that we can still tender?	The briefing session was compulsory, so non-attendance invalidates the bid.
4	We note that paragraph 1.1.2 of the technical evaluation criteria allocates points according to the number of "cases" undertaken by the firm within the General and Further Education and Training Qualification sub-framework. Please could you clarify whether "cases" includes only directly litigious matters or extends to advice and opinions relating to the sub-framework.	Yes the cases extends to advice and opinions